Twenty-three-year-old Kendra Rollins is fed up with men. After her relationship with aspiring basketball player Jamal Lawrence unexpectedly ends, she vows never to let her heart be broken again. Sometime later, Kendra meets Arien Chambers, a successful man who seems to have everything she wants in a guy. However, when their relationship becomes more serious, Kendra is unable to fully commit because of her leftover relationship baggage. When life suddenly becomes chaotic and unpredictable, Kendra realizes her faith in God is what can ultimately pull her through. But will everything work in her favor? Or will it be too little, too late?
