Playing loosely on the theme of the classic film, Emma Morgan's new novel is a sweet, fun romance book fans of the genre and the movie will adore. The last thing John Rusher needs in his life is a wife. He's got enough to tend to with his inventions, and he enjoys his quiet life. But when a terrible accident brings the lovely Catherine Langer to his house, his whole life changes. Not only does he find himself falling in love, he also finds himself in jail, arrested on the suspicion of kidnapping. Crippled as a young child, Catherine Langer does not expect to ever find love, as every man has turned away at the sight of her wooden leg. John Rusher is different, however, and she cannot deny her attraction to him. His family has taken her in at her time of greatest need, and she can see he is a kind and generous man. So when his life is set to end by the hangman's noose, Catherine knows it is up to her to save him!
