A town decides to leave the tyranny and oppression of the king's realm and ventures into the vast and mysterious forest, which had been forbidden to people of the realm for a thousand years. At first, they were successful at creating a new society but they couldn't evade the king and the murderous duke for long. Will they find a suitable ally to defend themselves against the waves of invading soldiers? Could they get help from the magical sprites that live in the forest? Is there more to the forest and reality as a whole, than meets the eye? Contents: Prologue Terror of the Woods War of the Woods Part I: Daniel of the Woods Part II: Bren of the Briars Part III: Girl of the Stars
