New York City's mayor and his deputy mayor seem to be on a fast track to the White House. Nothing can stand in their way as they outmaneuver their enemies and soothe anyone's ruffled feathers. But when an innocent child dies in a sidewalk shooting and a slain police officer is implicated, past allegiances are revealed and the inner workings of the city's political system begins to unravel. A Castle Rock film starring Al Pacino and John Cusack opens February 16.
