Haunting memories of an imperfect childhood shadow Agent Jeri Forbes, a unit leader in the FBI's prestigious Special Serial Crimes Division, as she stalks the man responsible for slaughtering families along a sleepy Louisiana bayou. Jeri soon learns that the man her team hunts is the puppet of a much more insidious serial killer intent on a personal quest to destroy Jeri's life and that of her lost love, Ethan Barnes. Follow this fast-paced thriller through the swamps of the Louisiana low-country as Jeri and her team match wits against a brilliant master of destruction and his all too willing protégé.
