Colby “The Razor” Evans is your everyday roughneck, only he has an excuse for it. Colby starting boxing when his parents were killed in a car accident. Declan, Colby’s older brother took him in when he was 15 knowing he needed to get him into something and boxing seemed to be the best thing at the time. That’s when Declan meet Tommy and they started Colby’s training. Here we are 18 years later and Colby is turning 35 and has yet to find that one special lady to calm him down. Until the one night he least expects it. The blue eyed beauty caught his eye and stopped his heart right there in the ring. Now he just needs to meet that beauty. Colby eventually meets Mackenzie only to find out he can’t claim like he would like to. Mackenzie is a preachers’ daughter but she’s not crazy and wild like most. She’s a daddy’s girl and at 25 she’s still a virgin. She promised her dad she wouldn’t be like her brother who has put their family through more hell then even imaginable. Mack’s brother is a boxer and asks her to come root for him. She knows deep down she shouldn’t go but he begged her and she finally gave in. Mack always figured she would end up with a guy from her daddy’s church. Well that was until she caught a glimpse of Colby. When Colby meet her eyes it was like they were they only two people in the arena. She has to shake it off though she know it won’t ever happen her brother would kill the guy before he could touch her. Will they ever find a way to be together? Is Fate and Destiny against them? Is the age difference going to be a problem? Will Mack’s be an issue? Will Mack’s and Colby’s lifestyles make things worse?
