Nicholas Fallon is a killer. He's been one for over twenty five years. He's never missed a target. Ever. And today should be no different. Today he's been contracted by Joe Romero, the most powerful Mafia boss on the eastern seaboard. Romero doesn't trust too many people. For thirty years Arthur Kent has been his lawyer, and Romero has trusted him. Kent knows everything. Names, dates, places. Arthur Kent does, quite literally, where the bodies are buried. But something has changed. Kent has been acting differently. He's been talking to people he shouldn't. Now, Romero wants Nick Fallon and Arthur Kent to meet. And Fallon doesn't believe in small talk. He simply tells the truth. And now he's going to explain what Romero does to THOSE WHO KNOW TOO MUCH.
