Travel Writing: ticket to travel the world on someone else's dime, make money and live a life of unbridled adventure Read on your PC, Mac, smart phone, tablet or Kindle device The notion of travelling on someone else's dime and getting paid to write about your exploits is seductive indeed. Until recently the profession of travel writing was reserved for a few and the threshold for entry to these exalted ranks was difficult to attain. With the advent of the internet all that changed. Travelers of all stripes began to publish blogs about their exploits, adventures and misadventures. The profession of travel writer was no longer the domain of a few. Well written travel blogs attracted readers like bees to honey, readers who were eager to vicariously live and experience the life and travels of their favorite travel bloggers. Today travel writers and travel bloggers alike are forging their own success. Membership in the six-figure income club is growing and a few have even broken the sevens! Is a travel writing career right for you? Do you love to travel but don't have the time or money to do more of it Are you naturally curios Can you write If you answered yes this book is for you.
