The orphans are resistance fighters in the revolution. The orphans are kids. For months they've helped political prisoners escape to the north. Their efforts earned them the name 'The Army of Orphans'. As the war escalates, the Orphans find themselves on missions that get more dangerous by the day. *** The place-Pervaiske, Ekrunia, Eastern Europe. Alex Krisko, his little brother, Anton, and five of their fellow orphans escaped the Luhansk Boarding School for Orphaned and Abandoned Children more than a year ago. They created a home and a family in the cellar of a bombed out suburban ruin left over from the People's Revolution more than thirty years ago. The time-2048. Nothing has changed in the last thirty years. The country is poor in spite of its wealth of natural resources. The people are oppressed. They revolt.
