The Roses Trilogy continues with The White Rose What could be more exciting than to be teenagers in love in 1957? Although Jenny Cooper and Jake Landis are convinced they have a future together, her parents do not approve. Their lives will change forever when Jenny leaves for college. Although separated through a series of misunderstandings and mis-communication, will they be able to find their way back to each other? Will true love endure time and distance for them? And will they learn anything from the stories of their ancestors, Mary Chadoin and Ivy Johnston?
