On his return journey from a business meeting, Alan Reed finds himself stranded at the roadside. Seeking refuge for the night, he finds himself being chased by a fierce predator. After fleeing to the safety of a guest house, he becomes trapped inside of the house all alone. Upon exploring the rooms of the house, he soon realises that the house is not what it seems. The house knows his deepest darkest secrets and regrets, and he must face up to the events of his past if he is to ever find his way back home. Alan must discover the secrets of Grimfall, to find redemption, but he soon discovers that he is not in the house alone after all.
