Familiar Face involves a young woman whose antics at times gets her into trouble. Entrusted to run The Fenton Timber Company, twenty-three year old Kristina Fenton learns that she's on the brink of losing her father's timberland to the bank. Desperate to prove to her father that she's worthy of his trust, she sets sail from Teekalet, Washington Territory to San Francisco. She fully intends to speak to the man who has loaned her father the money. Her plan encounters several obstacles. Not one to give up so easily, she comes up with an idea that not only can ruin her good name but that of her beloved sisters as well.
