Jonathan Garland began his days in Amory, Mississippi, the eldest and only son of Robert and Judith Garland, born April 26, 1905. Even though he was a child of the great depression, his childhood had been a privileged one. The state of the economy had not helped his father's business, but it had not hurt it either. While other families struggled to survive, the Garlands had maintained their wealth. Jonathan had a bright future ahead of him...That is until he met the lovely Ruby Leigh, a vampire on a mission.....Also check out "A mississippi Moonlight" and "Magic and Magnolias" ,
