Citadel picks up from the end of Talisman, book 1 of The Peck Chronicles. James Peck must use the Talisman to find his father and save a whole planet. Battling races are all striving to be the ones to survive the oncoming disaster, and the Hedra wizard, Dendralon, knows that James and his wizard goldfish may yet threaten his plans. Can James reunite his family and bring them safely home amongst the chaos of Denthan? Monsters, magic and family tensions all stand in his way.
