Max is an extraordinary and adventurous dog who loves to use his imagination. But what no one knows is that Max is a little dog with a big secret. He is a Super Ninja Dog! Max loves exercise more than anything. He practices his Ninja skills while playing with his friends, when he goes for a walk, and even when he eats a special snack. More than anything, Max loves dreaming up new adventures every day. In this delightful picture book, a little dog cleverly teaches children how to incorporate play and imagination into exercise and outdoor time.
