It is strange enough that Jennifer Harris 1994 class valedictorian and Theodore Hamilton beloved sports star became best friends. They are not just the class valedictorian and the beloved jock that everyone sees them as. They have a dream, and Theodore has a plan. When the best and worst things happen on her eighteenth birthday Jennifer's life will never be the same again. With the help of Theodore, Jennifer goes on a journey to discover herself and what she is capable of in this crazy thing she calls life.
