You are now INtering into the mind of a dyslexic being. These words that you read will INCourage you to think deeply, INvision what is being said, and take you places you wouldn't imagine being. I AM a creative thinker, seer, speaker, reader and writer. Dyslexic beings are NOT stupid nor do we have a learning disability. I AM creatively visualizing what I hear and see in my mind "Peculiarly, Eccentrically, Anomalously, Remarkably, Acceptionally, INceptionally, ExtraOrdinarily." Unfamiliar to you? "Funny." Makes perfect sense to me! You will fall in Love and rise in Love. Respect and appreciate self, others and nature. Get ready for your adventure!
