What happened? What convinced him that Jesus and Christianity were for real? In these pages, Tim candidly examines the honest and sometimes hard questions that both Christians and non-Christians ask about Jesus. - Did He really live? - Was He really who He says He is? - Did His resurrection really happen? - How can we be sure? - What's the evidence for all this? "God does not expect us to 'just believe,'" says Tim. "He wants us to take what we see in His Word, examine it with our mind in the light of other historical evidence, and come to a reasonable conclusion."
