Four CDs, three complete world tours, and thirteen years later, Audio Distortion has acquired a fan base that now spans generations. Stanley, Emma, Cadi, Willie, and Emily are now ready to pass the torch to the next generation of musicians, and to go quietly about their lives, out of the spotlight. Then, a simple question, asked by a fellow musician, sets in motion the beginnings of what will become known as the 'tour of the decade'. And once their fans – and the music world in general – discover what they intend to do, 'sold-out' doesn't even begin to explain what happens. Audio Distortion AND Ransom – together? One hundred twenty five days. Twelve carefully selected venues Twenty seven individual shows. Three quarters of a million passionate fans. And it all culminates in one big show, on what many consider the most important stage in music... Red Rocks Amphitheater And the single clear point after it's all over... To be the best... It is... And always has to be... ALL ABOUT THE MUSIC!
