Everyone suffers, from something or in some way. And when you are arrested and thrown in a holding cell, reaching up to a better life doesn't seem at all possible. In The Five Secrets from Oz, five unique, suffering souls find the courage to want to change and truly transform their lives and the lives of others. No other motivation has done it before, but these five secrets provide a rare vindication in their lives. Ever been in a slump? Knocked down and couldn't get up? Life isn't what happens to you, it's what you do within it. Stop thinking that change is impossible. Discover how five basic secrets can create end possibilities for your life. Anyone can change, you just have to be willing to use the tools from the secrets every day to get you there. It's getting knocked down and demanding to get back up. It's peeling back the layers and unveiling the "why" in your life. These tools can help you take back your life and find your inner light. This book gives you more than just a plan, a goal or an idea. It gives you the tools to allow you to make whatever positive transformation you need in your life - and in your world. One secret at a time.
